Re: United States v. Andrew Lloyd
S2 20 CR 524 (KPF)

MEMO ENDORSED

Dear Judge Failla:

Defendant Andrew Lloyd respectfully requests that he be permitted to attend the status conference scheduled for May 30, 2023, virtually from his home in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The Government does not object to this application. If Mr. Lloyd must personally appear, we respectfully request the status conference be adjourned to June 1, 2023.

We have provided the Government medical records obtained from Mr. Lloyd's supervising Pre-Trial Services Officer in Pittsburgh. Mr. Lloyd has significant mental health issues impacting on his ability to travel. He has never travelled long distances alone and has no one available to bring him to New York for the May 30 appearance. I make this application because I am unaware of any reason why the parties would be prejudiced by Mr. Lloyd's virtual appearance for this status conference. Mr. Lloyd is aware that he has the right to be personally present, and the obligation to be personally present if required by the Court. He waives his right to be physically present for this status conference.

If Mr. Lloyd is not permitted to appear virtually, his father is available to drive him from Pittsburgh on May 31, 2023, stay overnight in the New York area, and drive him back the following day, June 1, 2023, following his court appearance.

I thank the Court for its consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

Scott B. Tulman
